

Demi Lovato

- Born 20 August 1992 (28) Albuquerque
-
- Their parents got divorced when they was only 2
- Their mum was former country singer (Diana)
- They are one of three sisters
- They were a child actor starting on Barney and Friends which then led onto more things such as as The Bell Rings, Camp Rock and Sonny with a chance
- They then went on to singing and podcasts
- Songs include 'Sorry not sorry', 'Cool for the summer', 'Really don't care'
- They have in the past said that they were yet to accepting their sexualaity

Demi Lovato: Simply Complicated, as they explained, "I am open to human connection, so whether that's through a male or female, it doesn't matter to me."

Struggles

They were growing up in Texas where being part of the LGBTQ+ was not accepted

Not only that they have struggled with drug issues and drinking and also struggles with their eating disorder.

They have opened up about their use of drugs and how being child actor had a lot of pressure on them and how their eating was an issue, they talk about it their documentary 'Dancing with the devil' and they did touch about it in their other documentary simply complicated. In the documentary they mention about how their dad also struggled with drugs.

They had struggled with their sexuality

They only have only decided this year (2021) to declare they are nonbinary

Helping with the LBGQTQ+ community

Cancelled their tour due to the anti-LGBTQ bill passed through North Carolina's legislature

They wrote an Love letter to the LBGQTQ+ community

'In the Really don't care' video they took time out of serving as grand marshal of the 44th Annual L.A. Pride Parade to shoot the colorful visuals showing it's okay to be you.

Payed a tribute to the victims of the tragic Orlando nightclub shooting with a performance of "Rise Up" alongside Andra Day and Nick Jonas.

"Love is love" Demi

Achievements

Teen choice awards

Kids choice awards

Mtv video awards

People choice award

An guest judge on RuPaul's Drag Race in 2015

An guest role in glee

